MIDWAY—Two accidents occurred just minutes apart on Midway Lane Thursday, Jan. 31, 1985 which sent four youth to the hospital for treatment of minor injuries.
According to the report filed by Officer Paul Brown, Utah Highway Patrol, the accidents occurred at approximately 5:49 p.m. shortly after the sun had set.
The first accident happened when Richard Watson of Midway, when Muse apparently didn't see the Watson car slowing down.
The third vehicle, came into the fog, the driver, Clay J. Gustin, saw the two vehicles which had pulled to the side of the road, and assumed they were on the road, and over corrected. $2400.00.
The other accident. Estimated damage to the vehicles, is over $2400.00.
